Why join us? HAY is where everyday designs are reimagined. Wherever we look, we discover design – and every piece we create is an answer to a question. Collaboration is at the heart of HAY. Drawing inspiration from art, architecture, and fashion, we work with the best international designers to experiment with new materials, new technologies, and new ideas. Our goal is to create affordable, long-lasting products that are highly considered, quietly forward-thinking, and relevant to real life. Our purpose is to design for the good of humankind. It's the ideal we strive toward each day in everything we do. Being a part of HAY means being a part of something larger than your work team, or even your brand. We are redefining modern for the 21st century. And our success allows HAY to support causes that align with our values, so we can build a more sustainable, equitable, and beautiful future for everyone. By Applying to this unsolicited application, you are expressing interest in current or future opportunities within our retail store located in Copenhagen, Denmark as a Shop Assistant. Areas of responsibility: Daily customer contact - including guidance, furniture sale and cash sales Refilling shelves Daily maintenance of the store and make sure that the store looks its best Success criteria: To spread knowledge of HAY and products, through expert guidance on possible leads That you work purposefully on the best possible sales results in HAY That you take the initiative to solve the necessary tasks in the store That you take the lead and are a good role model for colleagues in all tasks, including sales and customer service, as well as in compliance with our structure and guidelines (working as the store was your own) That you work actively to create community and a positive atmosphere in the store, e.g., by your own intuition, your good humor and your communication That you follow the prepared procedure and guidelines for the HAY stores as well as the HAY stores' own general basic attitudes

Who We Hire? Simply put, we hire everyone. HAY is comprised of people of all abilities, gender identities and expressions, ages, ethnicities, sexual orientations, veterans from every branch of military service, and more. Here, you can bring your whole self to work. We're committed to equal opportunity employment, including veterans and people with disabilities.
